

“MILRID IS OFFICIALLY RETIRED”

I have dedicated this page to a close hunting buddy, my ever so faithful decoy Mildrid; we have hunted many many hours together, thousands and thousands of crows have fallen from the sky above her while we called them in, together we killed thousands of crows, I would guess over 10,000 crows in a spate of about 8 years, and now its time to say thanks, and you can now rest on my show case shelf, it is now time to carve another new Mildrid from foam, thanks Mildrid, I will miss you on the next hunt! You are famous all over the net, thanks again!
